Nothing there anymore but bad things had happened there-superstitious/haunting
 Loot is your 'treasure' the reward you have got. Usually from theft/secret.
 Humid means hot but damp

Blood boiling might also represent anger

Kate went back so no one would find her.

She yawns as she is not scared of her visitor

She wished she has been dead as she misses Sam

Kate dies from a lizard bite she laughs because she doesn't give her secret away.

Armpit wants the rain to fall on them to maybe cool them down.

Mr Sir is usually quite cruel and so it is unusual when he hands over the juice

The other boys resent Stanley as he has help digging his hole and they think he thinks he is better than them all.

Mr Pendanski calls him stupid.

I think they might find the secret that they have all been digging for all this time

I think Zero might get away with it as someone will stick up for him.

The warden is trying to retrieve the 'loot' from years ago. She doesn't know where on the lake it is so has been digging holes to try and find it.

I think the book is in two parts one which sets the scene and fills in background information and one which moves towards resolution.

I was shocked when Zero lashed out as he might get into serious trouble or Mr Pendanski might want to take revenge.

Linda's name has changed as she got married because she wanted to be rich.

The loot is supposed to be out on the lake somewhere.

Stanley has been there for 46 days.

Summary: Mr Pendanski is cruel to Zero and taunts him, calling him 'stupid'. Zero gets wound up and smashes him across the face with his shovel
