

Topic: Starry Night

Communication, Language & Literacy

Lists – Ingredients – star biscuits and space cookies

Labelling – Rockets and Aliens Festivals – Easter Egg Maps

Captions – Kite design

Invitations – Alien Tea Party

Sentences – Stories – Owl Babies - Q Pootle

Bookshelf

Physical Development

Moving and Handling

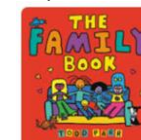

Dance – finding different ways to move our bodies and learning dance routines, sequences, high and low movements

Sports - Preparing our bodies for Sports Day, running, throwing, catching and jumping

Personal, Social & Emotional Development

'The Family Book' (Todd Parr)

All families are different

Understanding the World

People and Communities – Easter Story

The World – Seasonal change - Life Cycles, Weather and recycling

Technology – Purple Mash - Space Aliens

Expressive Arts & Design

Colours – Light and Dark – Day and Night

Mediums – pencils, watercolours, pastels and chalk – Van Gough – Starry Night

Exploring materials – kites

Forest Schools – Space Rockets

Music – Family, friends and around the world

RE

Why do Christians put a Cross in an Easter Garden?

Super Start– Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star Gazer– As a family gaze up to the sky. Can you find the brightest star?

Get comfy in a blow up paddling pool, lie down in a warm and toasty cover. <https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/shows/stargazing>

Fabulous Finish – Blast off! Children are to make super star rockets and enjoy a tasty rocket treat!

12345 Mathematics

Number - Numbers stories – recognising numbers, counting, subitizing, estimation, more, less, adding, taking away, sharing and doubling

Shape, Space & Measures – Measuring ingredients for yummy space biscuits. Purple Mash – 2simple maths city (Don't forget to have fun and login at home!)