The children in class 3 drew the new life growing from the stump using pastels. The children had a great discussion about how the trees in the background look dead but the new shoot looks like the beginning of new life and they thought it represented hope. Isaiah 11:1 - "A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots."

Class 3 participated in the BBC's live lesson for anti-bullying week. The children spoke about resolving conflict and how to handle disagreements constructively, without turning to bullying. We wrote an acrostic poem with the word respect. 	*	*	*			*	*	*		*			*		*
Class 4 took part in a Shakespeare workshop. We also looked at clothing from the time of Shakespeare and at some of the portraits displayed			*						*		*			*		*
Class 4 looked at the plight of refugees and linked this with the story of Ruth. We wrote and shared prayers			*		*		*		*			*			*
Carols around the Tree Children throughout school enjoyed a range of different art &amp; craft activities. This resulted in each child making a decoration which they placed on our tree; followed by a selection of Christmas carols. 		*				*			*	*	*	*		*	*	*

Jesse Tree

Following Jesse Tree workshops, the children all contributed towards their own Jesse Tree decorations, which will be displayed. Isaiah 11:1 - "A shoot shall come out from the stump of Jesse, and a branch shall grow out of his roots."

Remembrance Day

All classes created a piece of art work and reflected on the meaning of the different coloured poppies and their significance today.

A photograph of four children, two girls and two boys, standing in a row and holding up their art projects. From left to right: a girl with long red hair holding a pink paper flower; a boy with dark skin and a beard holding a red paper flower; a girl with blonde hair holding a black paper flower; and a girl with red hair holding a white paper flower with a black handprint in the center. They are all smiling and wearing school uniforms. The background shows a classroom setting with a window and some equipment.

School Council elections were held to nominate our class representatives. Candidates had to prepare & deliver a short speech as to why they should be elected. Ballots were then held. Classes discussed how we vote and elect in our country.
